

Native Pathways Internship Information Session

Wednesday, November 20, 2013

Abernethy Hall, Room 102

INTERNSHIPS

Arts

- National Museum of the American Indian Internships
 - The National Museum of the American Indian (NMAI) Internship Program provides educational opportunities for students interested in the museum profession and related fields.
 - <http://nmai.si.edu/connect/internships/>
 - Deadline: February 6th

Business

- INROADS Internship
 - The mission of INROADS is to develop and place talented minority youth in business and industry and prepare them for corporate and community leadership.
 - http://ext1.inroads.org/iol_application/
 - Deadline: March

Education

- The Hunt Institute
 - The Hunt Institute internship program is for individuals who believe that all students can achieve at high levels and want to work as part of a team committed to that goal. The program is designed for undergraduates, recent graduates, and graduate students who are capable of doing staff-level work under minimal supervision.
 - <https://comm.unc.edu/undergraduate-studies/internships/paid-internships/>
 - Deadlines: please submit your application as soon as possible to April White, Director of Communications. (awhite@hunt-institute.org)

Government/Law

- Udall- Native American Congressional Internship
 - The Udall Foundation provides a ten-week summer internship in Washington, D.C., for Native American and Alaska Native students who wish to learn more about the federal government and issues affecting Indian Country.
 - <http://www.udall.gov/OurPrograms/NACInternship/NACInternship.aspx>
 - Deadline: January 31st
- Native American Political Leadership Program
 - The Native American Political Leadership Program (NAPLP) is a full scholarship for Native American, Alaska Native, and Native Hawaiian students who want to take part in Semester in Washington Politics. It is open to undergraduate and graduate students, including those who have completed their undergraduate degree but have not yet enrolled in a graduate program.
 - <http://semesterinwashington.gwu.edu/apply>
 - Deadline: March 1st
- The Department of Interior Internship Programs
 - The Department of the Interior offers internship opportunities in its eight bureaus, the Office of the Secretary and DOI University.

- <http://www.doi.gov/whatwedo/youth/Student-Internship-Opportunities.cfm>
 - Deadlines vary with each program
- Minority Access' National Diversity & Inclusion Internship Program
 - The Minority Access National Internship Program is designed to allow talented undergraduate and graduate students experience the diversity and scope of career opportunities available in the federal government and other participating entities.
 - <http://www.minorityaccess.org/ndiip.html>
 - Deadline: March 1st
- The Washington Internships for Native Students (WINS)
 - The Washington Internships for Native Students (WINS) offers students of American Indian, Alaska Native, and Native Hawaiian (AI/AN/NH) nations the opportunity to build leadership and advocacy skills while living, studying, and interning in Washington, DC.
 - <http://www.american.edu/spexs/wins/>
 - Deadline: February 15th
- NCAI Internships:
 - Students enrolled in institutions of higher learning are invited to apply for semester or summer-long internships (for which most institutions will offer college credit), with one to two applicants selected for each term. NCAI interns work with various staff on the issues they are most interested in pursuing.
 - <http://www.ncai.org/native-youth/fellowships-internships>
 - Deadline: April 19th

Health

- Health Career Connection
 - Health Career Connection makes substantial contributions to the priority goals of our partner organizations and increases diversity in the health professions. HCC comprehensive summer internship program provides hands on exposure, experience and mentoring. HCC's paid; full-time summer educational internships assist undergraduate students and recent graduates to pursue careers in healthcare management and policy, health education, community health, nursing administration, and other public health options.
 - <http://www.healthcareers.org/>
 - Deadline: January 31st
- Four Directions Summer Research Program at Harvard Medical School
 - The Four Directions Summer Research Program (FDSRP) is an exciting summer research opportunity at Harvard Medical School and Brigham and Women's Hospital (BWH) for undergraduate students with a commitment to the health of Native American communities.
 - <http://www.fdsrp.org/>
 - Deadline: February 17th
- Future Public Health Leaders Program
 - The FPHLP is a 10-week residential summer program at University of Michigan School of Public Health that encourages underrepresented college students to consider careers in public health. The program is designed for college students in their Sophomore, Junior, or Senior year who are undecided about their career goals and are in good academic standing in their area of study. Participants will receive leadership training, orientation to the public health disciplines, and real-world public health experience. The program is designed to foster knowledge of, excitement about, and commitment to health equity.
 - <http://fphlp.sph.umich.edu/program/application/>
 - January 30th

- National Institutes of Health Pathways Internship Program
 - The NIH Internship Program is for current students who are enrolled in high school, college, professional, technical, vocational, and trade school; or certificate program lasting at least one year. It is intended to promote possible careers in the civil service to students and individuals accepted for enrollment in a qualifying educational program.
 - <https://www.usajobs.gov/GetJob/ViewDetails/355599700>
 - Deadline: December 18th
- North Carolina Health Careers Access Program
 - One of the major goals of NC-HCAP is to grow the health care work force by increasing students' interest in health careers and providing them with opportunities to improve their competitiveness for admission into health professional schools.
 - <http://nchcap.unc.edu/college/>
 - Deadlines vary with each program
- Southwest Tribal Native American Research Center for Health (NARCH)
 - The Southwest Tribal Native American Research Center for Health (NARCH) Program develops partnerships with area colleges and universities to conduct health and behavioral research on American Indian health issues. A major goal of the NARCH project is to increase the number and skills of American Indian health professionals. One way we accomplish this goal is to sponsor the Southwest Tribal NARCH Summer Internship Program. Through this program we expose American Indian students to significant, innovative, advanced and exciting health research and motivate them to educate themselves for careers in health sciences, public health, epidemiology or medicine.
 - <http://www.mynarch.net/Scholarships.aspx>

Research

- Summer Undergraduate Minority Research Program at University of Pennsylvania
 - This program is open to rising undergraduate sophomores, juniors or seniors interested in exploring the field of health services research.
 - <http://ldi.upenn.edu/sumr/application>
 - Deadline: February 1st
- Moore Undergraduate Research Apprentice Program (MURAP)
 - The Moore Undergraduate Research Apprentice Program (MURAP) is a graduate-level research experience for highly talented students from diverse backgrounds. MURAP aims to foster the entrance of students into graduate school and faculty positions in academia.
 - <http://murap.unc.edu/>
 - Deadline: February 7th

Science

- American Indian Science and Engineering Society Internship
 - The AISES Internship Program provides students with applied work experience and an opportunity to explore career options. Placing students in 10-week summer positions with partner agencies, the program also promotes advanced study to the graduate level and assists students in developing professional networks.
 - <http://www.aises.org/what/programs/internships>
 - Deadline: March 1st
- The Department of Energy Scholars Program
 - The DOE Scholars Program offers unique opportunities that introduce students or post-graduates to the agency's mission and operations. Participants in the DOE Scholars Program gain a competitive edge as they apply their education, talent and skills in a variety of scientific research settings within the DOE complex.

- <http://orise.ornl.gov/doescholars/application/>
 - Deadline January 12th

Social Work

- Carolina Center for Public Service (Apples)
 - Selected students serve as full-time (40 hours per week), paid interns in service organizations throughout North Carolina for eight to 10 weeks during the summer. Interns earn one hour of academic credit for the summer internship. Selected interns will enroll in CCO SOWO 492, offered by the Friday Center Carolina Courses Online summer program. The course covers material on characteristics of nonprofits, including organization structure, funding, volunteer management and leadership. The class follows a discussion/seminar format and complements the fieldwork through focused readings, discussion boards and reflective writing.
- Z. Smith Reynolds Foundation Non-Profit Internship Program
 - The Z. Smith Reynolds Foundation believes summer internships offer a crucial pathway to future employment and experience for the next generation of nonprofit leaders. However, the universality of unpaid internships in the nonprofit sector often creates financial hurdles for students to participate in such experiential learning.
In an effort to diversify the pool of young nonprofit professionals in North Carolina, ZSR established the Non-Profit Internship Program (NPIP) in 2011. Each summer, the program awards 20 college and university students, enrolled in four-year institutions across the state, with paid internships at ZSR-grantee organizations
 - <http://zsr.org/grants-programs/non-profit-internship-program>
 - Deadline: February 3rd by 6:00pm

Summer Prep Program

- Graduate Horizons
 - Graduate Horizons is a competitive graduate school admission workshop for Native college students and college graduates. We partner with graduate schools and professional programs to administer our biennial, 4-day summer workshop on the graduate admissions process.
 - <http://www.graduatehorizons.org/>
 - Deadline: February 1st