

NLI UNC AIC Native Leadership Institute

The North Carolina Native Leadership Institute is a culturally tailored leadership training program offered by the UNC American Indian Center.

The NLI is implemented in two-year cycles across three intense gatherings for current and emerging Native leaders.

Participants receive a certificate from UNC Chapel Hill upon completion of the program and gain membership to the statewide NLI Network of previous Cohort graduates.

NLI Curriculum Focus Areas:

- ◇ Understanding Leadership Roles and Responsibility
- ◇ Partnerships, Finance and Programming
- ◇ Civic Engagement and Strategic Planning

Important Dates :

June 1st :

Online Application Period Begins

July 31st :

Application Period Closes

August 14th :

2017 NLI Cohort Participants Selected and Announced

FALL NLI MEETING SCHEDULE:

Gathering 1
October 4-6th
2017
Chapel Hill, NC

Gathering 2
January 17-19th
2018
Raleigh, NC

Gathering 3
April 4-6th
2018
Chapel Hill, NC

For more information and to apply please visit the American Indian Center's website at www.americanindiancenter.unc.edu. For additional questions please call that AIC at 919-843-4189 or email Christina Theodorou at ctheo@unc.edu.

UNC
AMERICAN INDIAN
CENTER