

2024 CALDWELL FAMILY ARTISTS IN RESIDENCE: KERI ATAUMBI & TERI GREEVES

On April 8-12, the UNC Department of American Studies will welcome the 2024 Caldwell Family Artists in Residence, Keri Ataumbi (Kiowa) & Teri Greeves (Kiowa). Be sure to come meet them at the great events we have planned!

KERI ATAUMBI

TERI GREEVES

Clockwise: Gold Etched Bracelet with Diamonds, Keri Ataumbi; Ataumbi Metals on Lily Gladstone for British Vogue, October 2023; Kiowa Ladies: Beaded Heeled Shoes, Teri Greeves, 2017; Cowboy Elvis and an Indian, Teri Greeves, 2012.

Lunch at the AIC

Drop in for conversation and lunch at the American Indian Center, 205 Wilson St, on Tuesday, April 9, 11:30 AM - 1:30 PM.

Conversation at the Ackland in honor of Jenny Tone-Pah-Hote

“We Work and Make Beautiful Things” On Friday, April 12 at 6:00 PM, at the Ackland Museum, Teri Greeves and Keri Ataumbi will be in a conversation with Jami Powell (Osage), Curator of Indigenous Art at Dartmouth’s Hood Museum. Reception to follow. Registration required--visit <https://events.ackland.org/event/2nd-friday-artwalk-4/>.

WCHL Interview

Tune in to 97.9 The Hill on Tuesday, April 9 at 9:30 AM or Thursday, April 11 at 5:30 PM!